Mons. M. C. COUTELLE, Paris.

Forming an extraordinary and systematic collection of works on Archaeology, Fine Arts, History and French Literature in general, but especially rich and complete in works necessary for the study of the History of the Fine Arts and Literature of Italy and France during the Middle Ages and period of the Renaissance.

The Library was formed on the plan of that of the late Viollet-le-Duc, the eminent French Architect, and contains almost the entire Library of the late Art Historian and Bibliographer, Anatole de Montaiglon, supplemented by large accessions from other sources.

The section of the Fine Arts is especially complete in Old and Modern Histories, Treatises on Architecture, Painting and Sculpture, Artist's Biographies, Galleries, Collection of Prints, Costly Works on Decoration and the Industrial Arts, Full Sets of Periodicals and Collections of Societies, etc.

The sections of General History, French Literature, Patrology, Bibliography and Classics are remarkably complete in costly works and rich in large sets of Collections of Memoirs and Publications of learned Societies.
